

94-9 Running at large.

- A. No person having in his or her possession or ownership any animal or fowl shall allow the same to run at large within the city. The owner of any animal, whether licensed or unlicensed, shall keep his or her animal under immediate control on their property, so as not to allow said animal to interfere with the passing public or neighbors. Any animal running at large may be seized and impounded by a law enforcement officer.

- B. A dog or cat shall not be considered to be running at large, while in public, if it is on a leash and under control of a person physically able to control it.
